New Hope Man Is Defendant; Claim Outgrowth of Plumbing Purchases

DOYLESTOWN, Aug. 26—Four men—one each from Morrisville, Durham township, New Hope, and Upper Southampton—are named in four separate suits in the Court of Common Pleas here. In another suit a Morrisville husband is asking for a divorce.

Francis Cart, Morrisville, has been named the defendant by Alfred O. Redland, Morrisville, in a $403.65 automobile damage suit. The suit grows out of a two-car accident Dec. 11, 1948, in Morrisville on North Pennsylvania avenue.

John W. Foster, 2d, of the Morrisville section, has begun an action in divorce against his wife, Doris U. Foster.

William Charles, trading as Riegelsville Saw Filling Works, Durham township, has been named the defendant in a $380 action in assumpsit by Henry C. Roemer, Browness Briggs, William Raudenbush and Robert S. Fiederspiel, trading as Atlas Overhead Door Company, Quakertown. The suit grows out of the purchase of a door Oct. 6, 1948.

B. H. Deacon Company, Inc., Philadelphia, has named Roy Beans, New Hope, the defendant of an action in assumpsit in which the claim amounts to $375 with interest from March 25, 1948. The claim grows out of the purchase of plumbing merchandise.

John M. Young, Upper Southampton, has been named the defendant in a $300 action in assumpsit by Thrift Feed Mill, Cross Keys. The claim is dated April 15, and involves a financial transaction.

Sedatives Administered Sweeney Give Some Relief

Condition of Edward Sweeney, Maple Beach, who was seriously injured in a 14-foot fall from a ladder in Burlington, N. J., on Wednesday, is unchanged today. Mrs. Sweeney advises, except that with sedatives beginning to take effect he has a little more comfort.

Physicians at Burlington County Hospital, Mount Holly, N. J., where he is a patient, stated yesterday morning that the locality was in "fairly good" condition considering severity of injuries.

Sweeney was engaged in replacing a bulb at one of the light standard under Burlington-Bristol bridge when he fell to Reed street, Burlington. It is now thought that a short circuit caused the fall, as slight burns are noted on two fingers of his left hand. He sustained a fracture of the wrist, and the wrist has now been placed in a cast. His pelvis and spine were fractured; and both heels fractured. Nothing can be done about the injury to the heels until the swelling subsides. Mrs. Sweeney stated this morning. Treatment is now being administered for the spinal injury.

Falls From A Moving Train; Seriously Hurt

MORRISVILLE, Aug. 26—A salesman for a New York importing firm was seriously hurt when he is said to have fallen from a moving train near here. The injured man is Raymond Abady, 39.

Abady was treated at Mercer Hospital, Trenton, N. J., for head and chest injuries and a fractured left leg.

Police Chief Harry F. Christ of Morrisville said he believed Abady's fall from the east-bound Palm Land express was accidental. But there were no details as to the circumstances.

Abady lay unconscious between two east-bound trains when found just before 9:15 a. m. by fireman J. L. March aboard a PRR drill engine west of the Morris tower.

Moments later the engineer of the Crescent Limited, New Orleans, La., to New York, saw the victim lying on the right way and notified the station master at Clinton street station, Trenton.

The Union Fire Company ambulance from Morrisville took the injured man to the hospital.

Credentials carried by Abady indicate he is employed by the Hiday Importing Co. His home address was listed as Brooklyn, N. Y.

HERE AND THERE IN BUCKS COUNTY TOWNS

Activities of Interest To All In The Various Communities

GLEANED BY SCRIBES

A tenant house on the "Iversley Farms," near Tinicum was destroyed by fire, on Monday.

The fire destroyed all the furniture, clothing and food of the tenants, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur D. White and their three children. Mr. White is a tenant farmer for Major Iversley, owner of the farms.

Four fire companies, Point Pleasant, Plumsteadville, Erwinna and Ottsville, called by Mrs. Iverson, extinguished the fire and the White family was sheltered by Mrs. Lilian Clardy, another tenant.

John F. Mason, disaster chairman of the Doylestown district, Upper Bucks County Branch, American Red Cross, was called on the case.

Emergency clothing and food were given to the family and a case worker assigned to the situation.

A large machinery and tool shed, containing equipment, was saved by the firemen.

Chief Thomas Anderson, of Point Pleasant, assisted by County Detective William L. Stackhouse, Doylestown, investigated the fire and a 4½ year-old boy admitted to the County Detective that he struck a match, and held it against clothing in the closet.

The five room bungalow, nearly new, valued at about $5,000, was destroyed with the occupants saving only a refrigerator, two chairs and several articles of clothing.

A Doylestown contracting firm has turned over its entire force of workmen in answer to an appeal.

FINAL OFFENSIVE

Greece's troubles are by no means over. But the clouds are rolling away.

Even before the start of eight years of suffering from nazi and communist aggression, Greece was a poor country. German policy during the occupation was to drain farms and industry to feed the war machine; during the retreat it was systematic destruction. The civil war was destructive too, paralyzing domestic attempts at reconstruction. When in 1947 Britain had to cut off aid to Greece, as well as Turkey, and this country took up the case, the outlook was dark.

American aid to Greece, like aid to China, included both economic and military support. Successive Greek governments failed to adopt economic reforms and to make the best use of armament. Increasing pressure has had to be applied to make the country do its part. The real or implied threat of withholding support has apparently been effective. Greece's agriculture and industry have been recovering fast. Social and economic reforms accompanied a renewed drive against the guerrillas and the conditions that fostered communism.

Mr. Kanelopoulos, the Greek minister of war, now has good news which seems to be verified by General Van Fleet of the U. S. military mission in Greece. The civil war is about over except for guerrilla holdouts in isolated "pockets" of the highlands. Of 650,000 refugees from guerrilla terrors, one-fourth have gone back to their farms and villages since May.

It is important, as Kanelopoulos says, to get rid of the guerrilla leaders — and just as important to offer generous amnesty to the thousands of Greek peasants and others who were forced to fight. If all goes well from now on Americans may eventually see a united Greece in a very strategic spot in case the cold war should become hot. It is too bad American aid to China could not have been as well used.

DRUNKEN DRIVERS

Prosecution for murder of the man charged with the death of Margaret Mitchell will bring little comfort to the general public, none to the family of the famous author of "Gone With the Wind." That he was driving a car while intoxicated, as authorities claim, serves to arouse public indignation to a greater extent than if the accident had been unavoidable.

Prominence of the victim in this particular case gives the matter almost worldwide attention. Those who attempt to operate motorcars while under the influence of alcohol have become a menace which safety officials have almost despaired of ending. There is no way of anticipating their actions and no means of preventing the accidents which so often follow. To be sure they can be prosecuted, their licenses revoked, but only after the harm is done.

There is one infallible rule: "If you drink don't drive; if you drive don't drink."

A Summary of The News

Continued from Page One over the vital Grammos Mountain area, long the key stronghold of the guerrilla forces. The guerrillas are still receiving help from Albania and Bulgaria, but aid from Yugoslavia "has diminished and may have ceased," the United Nations Special Committee for the Balkans reported.

Bitter criticisms of American newspapers marked the opening session of a peace rally in Moscow. Dr. Hewlett Johnson, the Dean of Canterbury, declared that Premier Stalin had told him that the press in capitalist countries might become the most serious threat to world peace.

In China, the Communist threat to Canton increased, with some Communist forces reported at points within 140 miles northeast of that city.

2 More "Polio" Cases Listed in Bucks Co.

ment having since been diagnosed as "polio". Her throat muscles were affected for a time, but now she is able to take liquid form of food. Her daughter Joan has been hospitalized for seven days, her right leg being affected. She is showing progress, but not to the degree that her mother has.

The hospital resident physicians state that of the three types of "polio", abortive, non-paralytic and paralytic, approximately 90 per cent of the cases are cleared up within a year, the majority of them almost immediately.

A quarantine has been imposed on the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robbins, Bath road, following diagnosis of their daughter Virginia's attack of illness as infantile paralysis.

The quarantined, Mrs. Robbins advises, was effective shortly before noon yesterday. Although not permitted elsewhere, the parents are allowed to visit the child in the isolation ward at Abington Hospital.

"Virginia seems improved. The pain has subsided, and her right leg seems to be the only part of her body affected at present as far as paralysis is concerned," stated Mrs. Robbins this morning. Therapy treatments are now underway. Hot pack treatments had been started on Monday, the date of diagnosis.

Bracken Post Corps To Compete in Philadelphia

Bracken Post Cadet Drum and Bugle Corps is all set for the national convention of the American Legion and the junior corps competition in Philadelphia next week. Bristol girls and boys have been rehearsing faithfully for the event, and will be in there working for any honors they can get.

Philadelphia is ready for the invasion of Legionnaires, Auxiliary members, and Cadet Corps members. Plans for turning the city over to the adult groups as well as the drum corps, bands, color guards, and choruses have been completed. Throughout the country groups are starting their treks to the Quaker city.

Many states are sending their finest, precision-drilled bands and drum corps to compete for $10,000 in cash prizes, trophies and national championship honors. They plan to fill the streets, parks, stadiums and hotel lobbies with stirring torrents of rhythm, melody and color.

There will be two days of competitions filled with rooting, cooing, fifing, bageling, drumming, drilling and marching—August 28th and 29th. It will be American pageantry at its best. All the units will top it off by marching up Broad street in the all-day grand parade of August 30th.

A turnout of the best units in the American Legion is assured because the Pennsylvania and New Jersey area has been for years the heart of drum corps activities.

Schedule of musical and drill contests follows: Senior Drum and Bugle Corps (preliminaries), Monday, August 29th, 9 a. m., at Municipal Stadium; Senior Drum and Bugle Corps finals, Monday, August 29th, 7 p. m., at Municipal Stadium; Junior Drum and Bugle Corps, Monday, August 29th, 9 a. m., Olney high school field, Front street and Duane Avenue. The parade will take place on August 30th at Washington Avenue on S. Broad Street, north to city hall, and out Benjamin Franklin Parkway.

FIRST GRADERS—In modern manner, they learn about growing things from study of live silkworms.

By Paul Shinkman

Central Press Correspondent

WASHINGTON—Recession is a by-word among the nation's economists in Washington these days—but there will be no recession in American education when the school bells start to ring again this autumn, despite predictions that have been made to the contrary.

This is the consensus of some of Uncle Sam's top educators who have been making a survey of the prospects for the new school year.

Said Dr. Earl J. McGrath, United States commissioner of education, in a special statement to this correspondent:

"I feel that there will be no substantial drop in our school and college enrollments for the coming academic year. If there were such a drop, it would reverse a long-time trend that runs back half a century."

The commissioner went on to announced that statistics just compiled reveal that the number of college degrees granted this summer was twice the pre-war record, which was 216,728 for the year 1939-40.

McGrath pointed out that this post-war flurry of sheepskins was largely the result of heavy enrollments under the GI Bill, which reached their peak in November, 1947, with a total of 1,149,941.

Many of the enrollments were for the completion of college work that had been interrupted by the war.

The Veterans' Administration itself looks for a natural decline in GI enrollments (mostly in colleges and training schools) during the coming year, as the war moves further into the background and the 1951 deadline for such enrollments draws nearer.

The forecast is 720,000 enrollments under the GI Bill for the coming year, as against 974,945 a year ago; and 60,000 enrollments under Public Law 16 (providing training to disabled veterans), as against 75,725.

However, even here, it is pointed out that the prospective decline in enrollments may be stemmed by the reports of increased unemployment throughout the Nation.

The GI—man or woman—who has until 1951 to take advantage of the educational bill, is not slow to realize that an extra year of schooling is vastly preferable to protracted job-hunting.

This direct proportion between unemployment and college enrollment reveals itself also in the case of non-veterans, some of whom are expected to extend their college education further than originally planned, as a means of riding out the economic recession.

GI STUDENTS—Veterans enrolling in George Washington University.

The veterans have nowhere near exhausted their rights under the GI Bill and Public Law No. 16, according to United States Office of Education officials.

Of the 8½ million veterans who have been approved for education, only 6½ million have taken it. Another 6½ million are eligible for the educational benefits but have not applied. They have until 1951.

The fact remains that, despite the economic recession, more than 18 per cent of the American population will be spending most of its time on classroom benches after September 1st.

Of these some two million will be in colleges and universities; more than six million will be in high schools, and more than 20 million will be in elementary schools.

However, the benches are only half the schoolroom picture. While educational experts have made it clear that they fear no shortage of pupils this year, they make no secret of that fact that they do fear—and expect—a continuing shortage of teachers.

This shortage will be chiefly at the elementary school level, where salaries are relatively low and physical effort is relatively high.

"Ike" Williams Will Build Bucks Co. Home

YARDLEY, Aug. 26—Lightweight boxing champion "Ike" Williams, Trenton, N. J., has purchased a 10-acre tract of land in Lower Makefield township. He is planning to build a $50,000 home there, it was learned today.

The site is located on the road between Yardley and Dolington, about a mile and a half northwest of Yardley. Plans for the home have not been completed. Construction is scheduled for next March.

The land was acquired by Williams from Mr. and Mrs. Robert Easton, of Massachusetts.

Williams now resides on Fountain Avenue in Trenton.

ROYDON TAKES LEAD IN FINALS OF YOUTH LEAGUE

Croydon A. C. took the lead in the final playoffs of the Bristol Youth League by scoring four times in the second inning to beat the Bristol Terrace nine, 4-2, on the latter's home.

Although both had a bad inning, Morrell and Muth pitched fine ball.

From the second until the seventh only three batters per inning faced Muth with four going to bat in the seventh. Morrell got out the last eight batters to step to the plate.

He had eight whiffs to his credit.

Morrell gave up four hits, three of which went to Rich.

The fourth game will be played Sunday at Croydon.

Arrange Teacher Workshop Here

Harold Ferguson, who will teach chemistry, is a graduate of State Teachers College, Clarion, and has taught for two years at Knox.

Mrs. John C. Kulp, Hulmeville, who has been selected to teach first grade in the high school building, has attended both the University of Pennsylvania, Phila., and the University of Arizona.

A graduate of Muhlenberg College, Joseph J. Smith has been selected to teach biology at the high school. Miss Jean Steele, a graduate of Bucknell University, Lewisburg, was elected to teach seventh grade mathematics at the Jefferson Avenue school. She has spent two years teaching at Donaldson.

Miss Barbara Yerkes, who will fill the position of girls' health and physical education teacher, is a graduate of Ursinus College, Collegeville.

The major alterations which took place during the summer months were centered chiefly in the high school so as to provide an additional class room, more convenient facilities for the cafeteria, also a larger machine and metal shop, a new mechanical drawing room and a relocation of the woodshop.

Parents who were previously notified that the fourth grade would have to be transferred to the Jefferson Avenue school, will please take note that this transfer will not be necessary. A room has been provided to accommodate this class in the high school building.

The addition to the rear of the high school building will accommodate a mechanical drawing room and public lavatories for men and women, which are to be used when athletic activities are being carried on. A refreshment stand is also to be included in the building to serve refreshments at football games.

A new storage building is being erected for field equipment and will also house the broadcasting booth. New ticket booths and larger entrance gates with turnstiles are planned for the opening of the football season.

The class rooms and halls, except that area in the gymnasium and class rooms above the gymnasium, have been painted in light, attractive colors. Wherever necessary, lighting has been changed to bring this up to modern standards of good school illumination, particularly in the gymnasium and on the stage. The new installation will give much more satisfaction on the basketball court and control of the stage lights and the house lights, with dimmers.

New cement sidewalks were laid on the Wood street side of the Wood street school building.

Improvements have been made in the boys' and girls' toilets in the Washington street building.

Today's Quiet Moment

By the Rev. Arthur D. Sargis
Pastor
Eddington Presbyterian Church

Dear Father, we thank Thee for the One of whom the betrayer said, "I have sinned in that I have betrayed the innocent blood," thus bearing testimony to the purity of the life which Jesus lived and out of whose life came these words "Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God." Only as we are pure in heart, said Jesus, shall we see the Source of all that is pure, true, and holy. May this be our prayer this day. In Jesus name. Amen.

SPORTSMEN'S BRIEFS

BY JOE ELMERSON

Your help needed . . . here is a real opportunity for everyone who is interested in hunting to help himself and the cause in general: This Sunday, August 28th, AT EIGHT O'CLOCK IN THE MORNING, almost 200 twelve-weeks old pheasants must be caught, crated and then liberated on open hunting covers in this area.

The birds are those of the Bristol-Edgely clubs, and they're in the pens located on the grounds of our raiser, George Blintiff, Sr., Edgely avenue, Edgely.

More than just a few men are needed to round up these birds, as they're scattered in all parts of the large, wire-enclosed pens, and plenty of help should be available to crate the birds and rush them on their way to liberation.

When November 1st rolls around there will be literally hundreds of you gunners out looking for these birds. How about twenty or thirty of you fellows giving a hand this Sunday morning?

Dog training . . . in answer to numerous inquiries on the dog training season, here are the dates, supplied by L. B. Stackhouse, deputy game protector: It is legal to train your rabbit hound or bird dog now, since Saturday, August 20th, marked the opening of the training season. The season will continue through March of next year.

If your dogs are a little on the heavy side from having been penned up don't push them too hard at the start. Cover is extremely heavy and the warm weather makes it tough going.

Licenses in . . . at least one local sporting goods store now has a supply of 1949 resident hunting licenses, while another store expects them momentarily. Of course there won't be too much demand for licenses during the next couple of weeks, but it is good to know that our sporting goods houses are again extending this special service to local hunters.

445 pheasants . . . that many birds were released in various sections of Bucks County on Tuesday of this week. They were the birds raised by the inmates of the Eastern State Prison for the Bucks County Federation of Sportsmen's Clubs.

Four clubs in the lower end, Middletown, Edgely, Newportville and Bristol each received a pro-rata share of them—12 birds per club.

Migratory seasons . . . this year the Pennsylvania seasons are as follows: Ducks—Oct. 1-Nov. 29; railbirds—Sept. 1-Oct. 30; Woodcock—Oct. 10-Nov. 8; dove—Oct. 10-Nov. 8.

Daily bag limits include: Ducks—4; woodcock—4; rails—15; dove—10. Shooting hours are one-half hour before sunrise to one hour before sunset (noon, however, on opening dates).

Reports promising . . . as recorded in this column several weeks ago, that pheasants and rabbits appeared in good supply, we are glad that later reports substantiate those findings. Pheasants and rabbits are showing up very well, and if the woodcock, blackbird, and dove shooters confine their shooting activities to those species, then we can expect some shooting, comes November 1st.

Plenty of fish . . . that is the way Ollie Hobbs summed up the fishing situation locally when he reported on the local level at the Edgely Rod & Gun Club meeting Tuesday evening.

"There are fish in the Canal, in Silver Lake, and some few in Maple Beach," Hobbs said. "But you've got to know how to fish for them," he added.

In the last week Ollie has taken at least a dozen nice bass in local waters.

Who knows? . . . last week this column was advised that the first of a series of inter-club smallbore rifle matches was scheduled by the Rifle & Pistol section of the Bristol Fish & Game Protective Association for Sunday, August 21, at the club's outdoor range, west of Silver Lake. Three teams were supposed to take part (Gophers, Groundhogs and Wildcats).

Well, there were riflemen on hand. They shot for score. But who was on what team still seems pretty much of a secret. A list of scores was handed me, but there was no team identification or team totals.

Perhaps it was just a practice session. Perhaps next Sunday the matches will really begin. Perhaps I haven't contacted the proper officer of the Rifle & Pistol Section.

I'm personally curious, however, since I shot for score (it wasn't a very impressive one) and I would like to be on somebody's team.

Here are the men who shot a score of 99 or better: Wm. Suter, 100 (out of the possible 100); R. Robinson, 98; S. W. Popkin, 98; G. Walker, 95; D. Creaser, 92; E. Stackhouse, 91.

VOLTZ POUNDS BALL FOR THIRD GAME OF SERIES

Voltz-Texaco knocked the cover off the ball last evening as it won the third game of the playoff series of the Bristol Suburban League. As the result of its 9-1 victory, Voltz-Texaco now leads West Bristol in the five-game series, two games to one.

The Oilers had twelve hits off the West Bristol ace hurler, Earl Wagner. They scored six runs in the first two frames and ended by scoring three times in the seventh. With the exception of the fifth, the winners had runners on base in every inning.

"Bill" McGerr, lanky Voltz twirler, allowed the West Bristol lads but three hits in chalking up the win. He had nine strikeouts and would have had a shutout but for two hits and a walk in fourth inning.

Pacing the gasmen's attack were Dave Ludwig, "Mickey" Mandio, and McGerr. Ludwig had three for three while both Mandio and McGerr had a pair of hits.

The Voltz team lost no time in scoring as it pushed over a pair of runs in the initial frame. Dewsnap singled to short centerfield. Ludwig's sacrifice moved the runner to second from where he scored as Harry Saul made Mandio's hit get away from him. Mandio who went to second on the play, crossed the plate on Charlie Kohler's hit to left.

Four big runs in the second clinched the tilt as far as the ultimate winners were concerned. With two out, McGerr started the fireworks by singling to center. Dewsnap was given a pass to first. Both runners dented the plate on Dave Ludwig's rousing triple to left. Ludwig came home on Mandio's hit. Mandio stole second, went to third on Cochran's bad throw, and scored when Bernie Stiles let the ball get by him.

To make victory more certain, the Voltz-men added a trio of markers in the seventh. Sal Pappaterra singled to left. He went to second on Dave Morrell's sacrifice and scored on Barney Ludwig's bingle to center. McGerr again hit safely when Dewsnap drew another walk, the bags were packed. Dave Ludwig got his third hit and also his third and fourth runs batted in when he singled, scoring Barney Ludwig and McGerr.

West Bristol's lone tally came in the fourth. "Hank" Killian opened with a hit to left. It was West Bristol's and Killian's second hit of the game. Killian went to second as Marsh walked. Morrell made a nice stop of Heath's grounder and forced Marsh at second, Killian moving to third. Stiles' hit to left counted Killian.

Killian had also singled to start the West Bristol opening frame but after Marsh struck out, Mandio made a beautiful stop of Heath's grounder which he converted into a double-play.

The fourth game of the series will be played Sunday afternoon on Memorial Park field.

HORSE SHOW FOR JUNIORS TO BE HELD NEAR PENN'S PARK

DOYLESTOWN, Aug. 26.—Four men—one each from Morrisville, Durham township, New Hope, and Upper Southampton—are named in four separate suits in the Court of Common Pleas here. In another suit a Morrisville husband is asking for a divorce.

Francis Cart, Morrisville, has been named the defendant by Alfred O. Redland, Morrisville, in a $403.65 automobile damage suit. The suit grows out of a two-car accident Dec. 11, 1948, in Morrisville on North Pennsylvania avenue.

John W. Foster, 2d, of the Morrisville section, has begun an action in divorce against his wife, Doris U. Foster.

William Charles, trading as Riegelsville Saw Filing Works, Durham township, has been named the defendant in a $380 action in assumpsit by Henry C. B. H. Deacon Company, Inc., Philadelphia, has named Roy Beans, New Hope, the defendant of an action in assumpsit in which the claim amounts to $375 with interest from March 25, 1948. The claim grows out of the purchase of plumbing merchandise.

John M. Young, Upper Southampton, has been named the defendant in a $300 action in assumpsit by Thrift Feed Mill, Cross Keys. The claim is dated April 15, and involves a financial transaction.

Sedatives Administered Sweeney Give Some Relief

Condition of Edward Sweeney, Maple Beach, who was seriously injured in a 14-foot fall from a ladder in Burlington, N. J., on Wednesday, is unchanged today. Mrs. Sweeney advises, except that with sedatives beginning to take effect he has a little more comfort.

Physicians at Burlington County Hospital, Mount Holly, N. J., where he is a patient, stated yesterday morning that the localite was in "fairly good" condition considering severity of injuries.

Sweeney was engaged in replacing a bulb at one of the light standard under Burlington-Bristol bridge when he fell to Reed street, Burlington. It is now thought that a short circuit caused the fall, as slight burns are noted on two fingers of his left hand. He sustained a fracture of the wrist, and the wrist has now been placed in a cast. His pelvis and spine were fractured; and both heels fractured. Nothing can be done about the injury to the heels until the swelling subsides. Mrs. Sweeney stated this morning. Treatment is now being administered for the spinal injury.

MRS. DOWNING ILL

Mrs. Robert Downing, Winder Village, who had been seriously ill, was removed to Abington Hospital, yesterday, by Bucks County Rescue Squad.

BOY IS BORN

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Grob, Logan street, in Harriman Hospital, yesterday.

Falls From A Moving Train; Seriously Hurt

MORRISVILLE, Aug. 26.—A salesman for a New York importing firm was seriously hurt when he is said to have fallen from a moving train near here. The injured man is Raymond Abady, 33.

Abady was treated at Mercer Hospital, Trenton, N. J., for head and chest injuries and a fractured left leg.

Police Chief Harry F. Christ of Morrisville said he believed Abady's fall from the east-bound Palm Land express was accidental. But there were no details as to the circumstances.

HONORABLE MENTION GIVEN BRISTOL TOT

Christine M. Favata Receives Cup in Asbury Park Parade

HOME ON LOGAN ST.

A tiny Bristol miss arrived home from Asbury Park baby parade, Wednesday evening, with an honorable mention award and a loving cup.

The one so honored is little Christine Marie Favata, 27 months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lucien R. Favata, 426 Logan street.

With the slogan "Powder Your Face with Sunshine" appearing on the ribbon band of the three-foot pink powder puff on her back, Christine daintily trod the boardwalk for  $\frac{1}{2}$  miles, throwing kisses to thousands who lined the boardwalk.

She took the routine check-overs and the long walk like a veteran, and was just as full of smiles when she finished as when the parade first got underway.

Her costume consisted of a pair of pink velvet tights, with dainty shoulder straps, matching the pink velvet puff which was her "background."

The cup won by Christine is inscribed "Coast Cities Coaches Trophy, Asbury Park Baby Parade, 1943."

The Favatas have one other daughter, Cynthia Marie, aged nine months. Mrs. Favata is the former Miss Antoinette Galizia.

FINAL OFFENSIVE

Greece's troubles are by no means over. But the clouds are rolling away.

Even before the start of eight years of suffering from Nazi and communist aggression, Greece was a poor country. German policy during the occupation was to drain farms and industry to feed the war machine; during the retreat it was systematic destruction. The civil war was destructive too, paralyzing domestic attempts at reconstruction. When in 1947 Britain had to cut off aid to Greece, as well as Turkey, and this country took up the case, the outlook was dark.

American aid to Greece, like aid to China, included both economic and military support. Successive Greek governments failed to adopt economic reforms and to make the best use of armament. Increasing pressure has had to be applied to make the country do its part. The real or implied threat of withholding support has apparently been effective. Greece's agriculture and industry have been recovering fast. Social and economic reforms accompanied a renewed drive against the guerrillas and the conditions that fostered communism.

Mr. Kanellopoulos, the Greek minister of war, now has good news which seems to be verified by General Van Fleet of the U. S. military mission in Greece. The civil war is about over except for guerrilla holdouts in isolated "pockets" of the highlands. Of 650,000 refugees from guerrilla terrors, one-fourth have gone back to their farms and villages since May.

It is important, as Kanellopoulos says, to get rid of the guerrilla leaders — and just as important to offer generous amnesty to the thousands of Greek peasants and others who were forced to fight. If all goes well from now on Americans may eventually see a united Greece in a very strategic spot in case the cold war should become hot. It is too bad American aid to China could not have been as well used.

DRUNKEN DRIVERS

Prosecution for murder of the man charged with the death of Margaret Mitchell will bring little comfort to the general public, none to the family of the famous author of "Gone With the Wind." That he was driving a car while intoxicated, as authorities claim, serves to arouse public indignation to a greater extent than if the accident had been unavoidable.

Prominence of the victim in this particular case gives the matter almost worldwide attention. Those who attempt to operate motorcars while under the influence of alcohol have become a menace which safety officials have almost despaired of ending. There is no way of anticipating their actions and no means of preventing the accidents which so often follow. To be sure they can be prosecuted, their licenses revoked, but only after the harm is done.

There is one infallible rule: "If you drink don't drive; if you drive don't drink."

2 More "Polio" Cases Listed in Bucks Co.

ment having since been diagnosed as "polio". Her throat muscles were affected for a time, but now she is able to take liquid form of food. Her daughter Joan has been hospitalized for seven days, her right leg being affected. She is showing progress, but not to the degree that her mother has.

The hospital resident physicians state that of the three types of "polio", abortive, non-paralytic and paralytic, approximately 90 per cent of the cases are cleared up within a year, the majority of them almost immediately.

A quarantine has been imposed on the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robbins, Bath road, following diagnosis of their daughter Virginia's attack of illness as infantile paralysis.

The quarantine, Mrs. Robbins advises, was effective shortly before noon yesterday. Although not permitted elsewhere, the parents are allowed to visit the child in the isolation ward at Abington Hospital.

"Virginia seems improved. The pain has subsided, and her right leg seems to be the only part of her body affected at present as far as paralysis is concerned," stated Mrs. Robbins this morning. Therapy treatments are now underway. Hot pack treatments had been started on Monday, the date of diagnosis.

Bracken Post Corps To Compete in Philadelphia

Bracken Post Cadet Drum and Bugle Corps is all set for the national convention of the American Legion and the junior corps competition in Philadelphia next week. Bristol girls and boys have been rehearsing faithfully for the event, and will be in there working for any honors they can get.

Philadelphia is ready for the invasion of Legionnaires, Auxiliary members, and Cadet Corps members. Plans for turning the city over to the adult groups as well as the drum corps, bands, color guards, and choruses have been completed. Throughout the country groups are starting their treks to the Quaker city.

Many states are sending their finest, precision-drilled bands and drum corps to compete for $10,000 in cash prizes, trophies and national championship honors. They plan to fill the streets, parks, stadiums and hotel lobbies with stirring torrents of rhythm, melody and color.

There will be two days of competitions filled with rooting, shouting, bugling, drumming, drumming and marching—August 28th and 29th. It will be American pageantry at its best. All the units will top it off by marching up Broad street in the all-day grand parade of August 30th.

A turnout of the best units in the American Legion is assured because the Pennsylvania and New Jersey area has been for years the heart of drum corps activities.

Schedule of musical and drill contests follows: Senior Drum and Bugle Corps (preliminaries), Monday, August 29th, 9 a.m., at Municipal Stadium; Senior Drum and Bugle Corps finals, Monday, August 29th, 7 p.m., at Municipal Stadium; Junior Drum and Bugle Corps, Monday, August 29th, 9 a.m., Olney high school field, Front street at Duncannon avenue. The parade will take place on August 30th at Washington avenue on S. Broad street, north to city hall, and out Benjamin Franklin Parkway.

By Paul Shinkman

Central Press Correspondent

WASHINGTON — Recession is a by-word among the nation's economists in Washington these days—but there will be no recession in American education when the school bells start to ring again this autumn, despite predictions that have been made to the contrary.

This is the consensus of some of Uncle Sam's top educators who have been making a survey of the prospects for the new school year.

Said Dr. Earl J. McGrath, United States commissioner of education, in a special statement to this correspondent:

"I feel that there will be no substantial drop in our school and college enrollments for the coming academic year. If there were such a drop, it would reverse a long-time trend that runs back half a century."

The commissioner went on to announce that statistics just compiled reveal that the number of college degrees granted this summer was twice the pre-war record, which was 216,728 for the year 1939-40.

McGrath pointed out that this post-war flurry of sheepskins was largely the result of heavy enrollments under the GI Bill, which reached their peak in November, 1947, with a total of 1,149,941.

Many of the enrollments were for the completion of college work that had been interrupted by the war.

The Veterans' Administration itself looks for a natural decline in GI enrollments (mostly in colleges and training schools) during the coming year, as the war moves further into the background and the 1951 deadline for such enrollments draws nearer.

The forecast is 720,000 enrollments under the GI Bill for the coming year, as against 974,945 a year ago; and 60,000 enrollments under Public Law 16 (providing training to disabled veterans), as against 75,725.

However, even here, it is pointed out that the prospective decline in enrollments may be stemmed by the reports of increased unemployment throughout the Nation.

The GI—man or woman—who has until 1951 to take advantage of the educational bill, is not slow to realize that an extra year of schooling is vastly preferable to protracted job-hunting.

This direct proportion between unemployment and college enrollment reveals itself also in the case of non-veterans, some of whom are expected to extend their college education further than originally planned, as a means of riding out the economic recession.

GI STUDENTS—Veterans enrolling in George Washington University.

The veterans have nowhere near exhausted their rights under the GI Bill and Public Law No. 16, according to United States Office of Education officials.

Of the 8½ million veterans who have been approved for education, only 6½ million have taken it.

Another 6½ million are eligible for the educational benefits but have not applied. They have until 1951.

The fact remains that, despite the economic recession, more than 18 per cent of the American population will be spending most of its time on classroom benches after September 1st.

Of these some two million will be in colleges and universities; more than six million will be in high schools, and more than 26 million will be in elementary schools.

However, the benches are only half the schoolroom picture. While educational experts have made it clear that they fear no shortage of pupils this year, they make no secret of that fact that they do fear—and expect—a continuing shortage of teachers.

This shortage will be chiefly at the elementary school level, where salaries are relatively low and physical effort is relatively high.

The land was acquired by Williams from Mr. and Mrs. Robert Easton, of Massachusetts.

YARDLEY, Aug. 26.—Lightweight boxing champion "Ike" Williams, Trenton, N. J., has purchased a 10-acre tract of land in Lower Makefield township. He is planning to build a $50,000 home there, it was learned today.

ROYDON TAKES LEAD IN FINALS OF YOUTH LEAGUE

Croydon A. C. took the lead in the final playoffs of the Bristol Youth League by scoring four times in the second inning to beat the Bristol Terrace nine, 4-2, on the latter's ninth.

Although both had a bad inning, Morrell and Muth pitched fine ball. From the second until the seventh only three batters per inning faced Muth with four going to bat in the seventh. Morrell got out the last eight batters to step to the plate. He had eight whiffs to his credit.

Morrell gave up four hits, three of which went to Rich.

The fourth game will be played Sunday at Croydon.

READING RIDERS HIGHLY RATED IN CYCLE CLASSIC

For years Reading has turned out great baseball players, outstanding auto racers and top flight football stars, and when the starter's flag drops on the 100-Mile National Motorcycle Championship at Langhorne Speedway on Sunday, September 4, the pretzel town can be proud of its entrants in the World Series of motorcycle racing.

Billy Huber and Stanley Witinski, both Reading products, will be among the top rated favorites to cop the victory trophy, the most prized possession a leadfoot can land. Huber and Witinski, of course, are professional enough to be interested in the lion's share of the $5,000.00 purse. But victory in the National "100" will bring either rider considerably more than just the winner's share of the purse — both in money and satisfaction.

Huber, who ranks among the most popular riders competing on the major tracks, feels that his run of tough luck is at an end and that the Sept. 4 classic will see him showing his dust to the field. Billy can't forget that he lost the 10-mile title at Atlanta last year on the flip of a coin. He finished in a dead heat with Bob Hill of Columbus, O., and then stood by while Hill took the winner's circle in too long, and the Reading fans feel the town has a better than even chance of seeing their town housing both of racing's biggest plums — The Indianapolis 500 and the 100-Mile National Motorcycle Championship.

Residents Urged To Return Directory Cards

A few weeks ago a query appeared in the columns of The Bristol Courier: "Where is Hal and where is Holly avenue?"

No residents came up with the answer, and in fact we must confess that we have just learned where they are.

Holly avenue, according to representatives of John Clark & Co., who are gathering information for Bristol's new city directory, is located between Pine and Corson streets, and extends from the Pennsylvania Railroad to Spring street, in the fourth ward.

Hal avenue, which is said to be an unofficial thoroughfare, extends from Bath street (at a point about opposite Bath school street) to Swain street.

Representatives of the Clark Company stress the necessity of residents who were not at home when they called, to fill in the cards left at the homes, and drop same in the mail at once, as detailed work on the directory is now being concluded.

Today's Quiet Moment

By the Rev. Arthur D. Sargin
Pastor
Eddington Presbyterian Church

Dear Father, we thank Thee for the One of whom the betrayer said, "I have sinned in that I have betrayed the innocent blood", thus bearing testimony to the purity of the life which Jesus lived and out of whose life came these words "Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God." Only as we are pure in heart, said Jesus, shall we see the Source of all that is pure, true, and holy. May this be our prayer this day. In Jesus name. Amen.

SPORTSMEN'S BRIEFS

BY JOE ELERSON

Your help needed . . . here is a real opportunity for everyone who is interested in hunting to help himself and the cause in general: This Sunday, August 28th, AT EIGHT O'CLOCK IN THE MORNING, almost 200 twelve-weeks old pheasants must be caught, crated and then liberated on open hunting covers in this area.

The birds are those of the Bristol-Edgely clubs, and they're in the pens located on the grounds of our raiser, George Blithoff, Sr., Edgely avenue, Edgely.

More than just a few men are needed to round up these birds, as they're scattered in all parts of the large, wire-enclosed pens. And plenty of help should be available to crate the birds and rush them on their way to liberation.

When November 1st rolls around there will be literally hundreds of you gunners out looking for these birds. How about twenty or thirty of you fellows giving a hand this Sunday morning?

Dog training . . . in answer to numerous inquiries on the dog training season, here are the dates, supplied by L. B. Stackhouse, deputy game protector: It is legal to train your rabbit hound or bird dog now, since Saturday, August 20th, marked the opening of the training season. The season will continue through March of next year.

If your dogs are a little on the heavy side from having been penned up don't push them too hard at the start. Cover is extremely heavy and the warm weather makes it tough going.

Licenses in . . . at least one local sporting goods store now has a supply of 1949 resident hunting licenses, while another store expects them momentarily. Of course there won't be too much demand for licenses during the next couple of weeks, but it is good to know that our sporting goods houses are again providing this special service to local hunters.

445 pheasants . . . that many birds were released in various sections of Bucks County on Tuesday of this week. They were the birds raised by the inmates of the Eastern State Prison for the Bucks County Federation of Sportsmen's Clubs.

Four clubs in the lower end, Middletown, Edgely, Newportville and Bristol each received a pro-rata share of them—12 birds per club.

Migratory seasons . . . this year the Pennsylvania seasons are as follows: Ducks—Oct. 21-Nov. 29; railbirds—Sept. 1-Oct. 30; Woodcock—Oct. 10-Nov. 8; dove—Oct. 10-Nov. 8.

Daily bag limits include: Ducks—4; woodcock—1; rails—15; dove—10. Shooting hours are one-half hour before sunrise to one hour before sunset (noon, however, on opening dates).

Reports promising . . . as recorded in this column several weeks ago, that pheasants and rabbits appeared in good supply, we are glad that later reports substantiate those findings. Pheasants and rabbits are showing up very well, and if the woodcock, blackbird, and dove shooters confine their shooting activities to those species, then we can expect some shooting, comes November 1st.

Plenty of fish . . . that is the way Ollie Hobbs summed up the fishing situation locally when he reported on the local level at the Edgely Rod & Gun Club meeting Tuesday evening.

"There are fish in the Canal, in Silver Lake, and some few in Maple Beach," Hobbs said. "But you've got to know how to fish for them," he added.

In the last week Ollie has taken at least a dozen nice bass in local waters.

Who knows? . . . last week this column was advised that the first of a series of inter-club smallbore rifle matches was scheduled by the Rifle & Pistol section of the Bristol Fish & Game Protective Association for Sunday, August 21, at the club's outdoor range, west of Silver Lake. Three teams were supposed to take part (Gophers, Groundhogs and Wildcats).

Well, there were riflemen on hand. They shot for score. But who was on what team still seems pretty much of a secret. A list of scores was handed me, but there was no team identification or team totals.

Perhaps it was just a practice session. Perhaps next Sunday the matches will really begin. Perhaps I haven't contacted the proper officer of the Rifle & Pistol Section.

I'm personally curious, however, since I shot for score (it wasn't a very impressive one) and I would like to be on somebody's team.

Here are the men who shot a score of 90 or better: Wm. Suter, 100 (out of a possible 100); R. Robinson, 98; S. W. Popkin, 98; G. Walker, 95; D. Creaser, 92; E. Stackhouse, 91.

SEMI-FINALS OF "SUB" LEAGUE TONIGHT

The semi-final round of the Bristol Suburban Softball League continues this evening with Jefferson meeting Franklin A. C. on Memorial Park field. Game will begin at six-fifteen o'clock.

Jefferson is one up on the Franklin team by virtue of its close 4-3 triumph Wednesday evening. The contest on that evening went two extra innings and was one of the most exciting of the season.

There is a likelihood that "Reggie" Gerome will again assume the pitching role for Franklin. Gerome was the starting pitcher of the first tilt but was replaced because of his wildness and erratic fielding which gave Jefferson three runs. Until he was relieved, Gerome had not permitted a base hit.

Vito Maresiglia or Buster Monachello is due to hurl for "Jim" Capuccio's team with Genaro Ferraro doing the receiving.

A triumph for Jefferson this evening will give them the right to meet Second Ward for the playoff championship of the circuit. This will also be a three-game series.
